

THE MONDAY

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
Record Series: Campus Newspaper
File: ES 1-1215
Date: 9-28-95

REPORT

SHELTON STUDENTS ACCEPTED IN RTI PROGRAM

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
JUNIOR COLLEGE DIVISION
202 SKYLAND BLVD
TUSCALOOSA, ALABAMA 35405

April 9, 1984

Lucy Kubiszyn, Editor

Three Shelton State students, Karen Bearden, Emily Redding, Karla Cole, have been accepted into the Medical Laboratory Technician Program at RTI for the Summer term.

SHELTON FACULTY MEMBER RECEIVES HONOR

Dennis Sampson has had four poems accepted by THE HUDSON REVIEW, one of the leading literary periodicals in the United States. The journal is based in New York City and has International distribution.

SHELTON STUDENT SELECTED MISS TUSCALOOSA

Shelton State freshman Tresa Hardin has been selected Miss Tuscaloosa in the recent pageant sponsored by the Business and Professional Women of Tuscaloosa. Ms. Hardin will represent Tuscaloosa County in the Miss Alabama Pageant in Birmingham this summer. The winner of that pageant will be the state's representative to the Miss America Pageant in Atlantic City, N.J. next August. Ms. Hardin joins Renee Raines, 1984 Miss Shelton State, in the scholarship pageant. A workshop for all contestants will be held in Birmingham on May 12 and 13.

ERIC GRAY PRESENTS RECITAL

Baritone Eric Gray will present a vocal recital on April 11 at 11 a.m. at Shelton State Community College, 202 Skyland Blvd. Gray is a graduate of Birmingham Southern College where he was a student of Andrew Gainey. He has done graduate work at the University of Alabama, studying voice under Ed White.

As a student, Mr. Gray was soloist for Hilltop Singers and the Birmingham Southern College Concert Chorus. He is also listed in Who Who's in music. He has recently been chosen to be one of the musical directors at the 1984 World's Fair in New Orleans. Currently he is employed at Berry High School.

The program will consist of selections by Debussy, Schumann, Copeland, Rozer Quilter and Rossini. The public is invited to attend.

SHELTON SINGERS PERFORM

The Shelton Singers under the direction of Joy Dendy performed on Friday, March 30, for the Chamber of Commerce during the first "Lunch in Capitol Park." On April 3, they performed for the State Convention of the Alabama Federation of Music Clubs.

UNITED CEREBRAL PALSY NEEDS VOLUNTEERS

United Cerebral Palsy of West Alabama is in need of volunteer help from clubs and individuals for spring projects and on-going programs, ranging from publicity and fund raising to assisting with children, making equipment, office help, special sports program, etc. If you are looking for a project or a speaker, call 752-4053. *We need items for our rummage sale on April 15 at the Southside Lions Club Building.

NEW AEROBICS CLASS SCHEDULED

Amy and Cheree will begin a new aerobics class at Shelton State on Monday and Wednesday and Tuesday and Thursday from 5:30 - 6:30 p.m. in the auditorium. Call 556-2541 for more information.

SHELTON STUDENTS AWARDED ALUMNI SCHOLARSHIPS

Two Shelton students were awarded University of Alabama Alumni Association Junior College Honors Scholarships, and another was named as an alternate. Sherry Jo Johnson and Donna Northam were named recipients of two of the ten scholarships awarded and Cricket Ellis was named as an alternate.

Ms. Johnson is a sophomore at Shelton and recently represented Shelton State in the Outstanding Student Contest at the Alabama Junior and Community College convention in Mobile. She is a member of Phi Theta Kappa and was the Tuscaloosa Maid of Cotton in 1982, after placing in the top ten contestants in the state pageant. She was also first runner-up in the Miss Agriculture Pageant. She has been the recipient of the American Professional Business Women Scholarship and has received one of Shelton's Merit Scholarships.

Mrs. Northam is married and was a graduate of Tuscaloosa High School. She was named the most Outstanding Dental Assistant in 1978 and received the Outstanding Education Award from the Alabama Dental Assistant's Association in 1979 and 1981. She has been on the Dean's List at Brewer State and at Shelton State.

Ms. Ellis, the alternate winner, is a member of Phi Theta Kappa and has received the Accounting II and Calculus II awards. She has received the Kilgore Scholarship and was recently named Krystal Employee of the Month.

SHELTON STATE TO PRESENT "CARMEN"

The music department of Shelton State in cooperation with the Shelton State Alumni Association will present George Bizet's "Carmen," a choral concert version by Harry Simeone, on Thursday and Friday, May 10 and 11, at 7 p.m. in the Shelton State auditorium, 202 Skyland Blvd. Both performances will be dinner theatre production with tickets costing $7.50 each. All proceeds from the production will be donated to the Shelton State Alumni Scholarship Fund.

Sponsor tickets are available at $50 a couple and Patron tickets are $25 a couple. Special seating will be provided Patrons and Sponsors and their names will be listed in the program.

Trasa Hardin is cast in the lead as Carmen. Playing Don Jose is Jay Roberts. Other principle characters include: Escamillo (bullfighter), Bryan Jones; Micaela, Debbie Jackson; Frasquita, Renee Raines; Mercedes, Teresa Hill, Zuniga, Thom Stephens; El Dancairo, Ronnie Miles; Marvelita, Karen Hayes. Narrator is Joel Hester. The Shelton Singers are cast in the full chorus. Director for the production is Joy Dendy. Accompanists are Syble Coats and Sam Robertson. Drama coach is Paul Looney with choreography by Susan Looney. Vocal coach is Eleanor McElvy.

Tickets may be ordered from Debbie Grimes or Sully Cochrane in the library. All Patron and Sponsor tickets must be ordered by Thursday, April 13, 1984. Selected seating is available.

ABOUT THE MATH LAB

The math lab has moved to the Blakney Building (next to laudromat). All day tutoring will be there. All hours 4 and after will be held in the library. Please inform your students of these hours.

Monday 4-8 p.m.	Thursday 9 a.m. - 12 noon
Tuesday 8-10 a.m.	4-8 p.m.
10 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.	Friday 8 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.
Wednesday 8 a.m. - 2:30 p.m.

DRAFTING STUDENT RECEIVES HONOR

Mikal Stith, Shelton drafting student, has been selected as the winner for Alabama's Seventh Congressional district in the indignia design contest for the submarine ALABAMA.

As one of the seven district winners, he will receive a $100 U.S. Savings Bond from the Tuscaloosa Chamber of Commerce, and an additional $100 from the USS ALABAMA Battleship Commission.

He will compete with the winners from the other districts for the state contest. The state winner will receive an additional $200 from the Commission and a trip to Connecticut for the ship's launching on May 19. Stith is a student of technical instructor, Bill Stringfellow and was formerly an art student at the Junior College.

FROM THE FIRE COLLEGE

The 48th Annual Fire College Week will be held at the Fire College April 23-27. Frank Drake, retired senior instructor of the Fire College, will discuss "The Way it Was" on Monday, April 23. On Friday, April 27, Alton B. Lanier, district inspector Association of American Railroads, will discuss "Hazardous Materials." During the drills, subjects covered include fire behavior, fire streams, protective breathing apparatus, and ventilation.

On April 24-25, the Alabama State Fire College and the National Fire Academy will sponsor a seminar, "NFA Community Fire Defenses: Challenges and Solutions," in Mobile at the fire department training center. Administrative fire officers as well as public officials whose responsibilities have a key relationship to the fire service are encouraged to attend.

ART EXHIBITION SCHEDULED

The Sixth Annual High School Art Exhibition and Scholarship Competition sponsored by Shelton State Community College will be held Sunday, April 15, from 2-3 p.m. in the Junior College Library. This year the thirteenth art scholarship will be awarded by the college and 123 works will be on display. Bruce Crowe, assistant professor of art education, the University of Alabama, judged the contest. A public reception will follow the awards.

Rob Murphree, a student of Gary Keer, Central High School East, is the 1984 recipient of a full tuition art scholarship to Shelton State. Dr. Bethany Engle is chairman of Shelton's art department.